Business Law Forum 2011

Find out what you don't know before it is too late!

Katherine Early, Chair, DBA Business Law Division states:

"In this uncertain economy, it is more important than ever to know how to deal with the legal issues that surround local business. Customers or clients may be threatening or filing bankruptcy, a new advertising campaign may be contemplated or a company may be considering a lay off. What does your business need to know?"

The Community Business Law Forum was created to help explain the legal issues involved".
